Important Information

- Agencies will normally make a charge to the tenant once they have found a suitable property. These costs can vary enormously and you are advised to check with the agent when you first make contact and find out what the charge is for. It is illegal for any agency to charge a fee to applicants unless suitable accommodation is found.
- For a more comprehensive list of letting agents you can refer to a directory such as the Yellow Pages or local newspapers, in particular the Hampshire Chronicle on Friday evenings (tel. +44 (0) 1962 841772).
- There are some websites that collate information on available properties from a wide range of different letting agents. A good example of this is www.rightmove.co.uk.
- Particulars of properties in areas adjacent to Winchester may be obtained from agents and individuals advertising in county newspapers. A list of newspapers is available from the Tourist Information Centre (tel. +44 (0) 1962 840500).
