8. Relevant Criminal Conviction

The University has special procedures for handling applicants from students with relevant criminal convictions. It is important that you declare any such convictions. The information that you provide will not affect the academic assessment of your application. However, it will enable us to put in place appropriate mechanisms to ensure that the interests and safety of all members of the University community are safeguarded.

Relevant Criminal Convictions are only those convictions for offences against the person, whether of a violent or sexual nature, and convictions for offences involving unlawfully supplying controlled drugs or substances where the conviction concerns commercial drug dealing or trafficking. Convictions that are spent (as defined by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974) are not considered to be relevant and you should not reveal them.

If you have a relevant criminal conviction, please tick the box
