

Primary Care & Population Sciences

Seminars 2017 - 1 pm until 2pm (unless otherwise stated)

By invitation only, if you would like to attend please contact Elena E.Alcoholado-Martinez@soton.ac.uk

Wednesday 15 February 2017 Aldermoor Health Centre	Zoe Gray, Megan Barlow-Pay Research Design Service (RDS). Title: Public and Patient Involvement (PPI) – a national and regional perspective.
Wednesday 22 February 2017 SGH – LC51	Professor Salim Khakoo Professor of Hepatology, Associate Dean Enterprise, Director of Biomedical Research (IFLS), University of Southampton. Title: Enterprise and its relevance to Primary Care and Population Sciences.
Monday 6 March 2017 Aldermoor Health Centre	Dr Ibrahim Bello University of Ile-Ife, Nigeria, Head of Department of Family Medicine. Title: Primary Health Care and Family Medicine in Nigeria
Monday 20 March 2017 SGH – LF9	Merlin Willcox Academic Clinical Lecturer, Primary Care and Population Sciences, University of Southampton. Title: Confidential enquiry into child deaths in Africa
Wednesday 5 April 2017 SGH – LC51	Helen Walters NIHR Evaluation, Trials and Studies Coordinating Centre (NETSCC). Title: Public Health Research – the view from the NIHR.
Thursday 11 May 2017 Aldermoor Health Centre	Katya Peeva Trakia University, Bulgaria, Department of social medicine and health management, Associate Professor of Computer Science and Biostatistics. Title: Burnout in primary care.