

Humanities

UNIVERSITY OF
Southampton

MA/MRes Medieval and Renaissance Culture

MA/MRes Medieval and Renaissance Culture

The Centre for Medieval and Renaissance Culture reflects the research interests of more than twenty members of staff from the various disciplines of Archaeology, English, History and Music – disciplines that are among the highest ranked in the country.

We are committed to developing interdisciplinary approaches to our research and teaching and our two innovative Masters courses (MA in Medieval and Renaissance Culture and MRes in Medieval and Renaissance Studies) offer students from a wide range of Arts and Humanities backgrounds the opportunity to study the intellectual history, politics, literature, music, material culture, buildings and landscape of medieval and Renaissance Europe. This rich and varied masters programme is designed to equip students with the particular skills needed (such as Latin and paleography) to access and study the past, and to undertake independent research in all aspects of early modern culture.

For further information about the programme visit the Centre for Medieval and Renaissance Culture website: www.southampton.ac.uk/cmrc/postgraduate/masters.html

Core Modules

Reading the Evidence and Research Skills
Medieval and Renaissance Palaeography
Latin Language

Typical Optional Modules

The Soldier in Medieval England
The Spanish Empire
Pre-modern Journeys
Literature and Conflict in Early Modern England
Imagining the Public Scene
The Peoples of Western Europe, 1450-1700
Medieval Political Thought

Cover image: Tudor Merchant's Hall, Southampton