Enrolment to the University incurs a liability to pay tuition fees although fees are due within 7 days of start of program. To encourage prompt payment of fees, a DISCOUNT OF 1% is offered to all students paying ALL of their contribution to the fee by Monday 3 October 2016. This payment must have reached the University by 3 October 2016 to qualify for the discount. This discount does not apply to students who are being charged per module for their program of study or to any third party sponsor where students have notified the University that their fees are being paid by a sponsor. The University accepts payment by various methods, although students are particularly encouraged to pay fees online before arriving in Southampton, and preferably, once online enrolment has been completed, via the student's secure personal site. Once enrolled, all students can access their personal secure financial site via the SUSSED portal

Third parties paying the personal element of fees on behalf of a student can make payment at www.webpayments.soton.ac.uk.

If you do not pay your fees in full the following rules apply:-

All Students - Payment to be received in 2 equal instalments at the start of each semester (3 October 2016 and 9 January 2017). On payment of the 1st instalment, you MUST provide a method of payment for the 2 instalment. Fees are charged annually in October of each year.

Failure to pay tuition fees as per the University's regulations will result in your Head of Academic Unit being notified. Non-payment of tuition fees will mean the immediate removal of library, computer and other facilities, your exclusion from classes and lectures, and eventually result in termination from University candidature. Any such debts will then be pursued by referral to an outside collection agency. Regulations may vary for those programs with non-standard commencement dates.

It is anticipated that the full annual fee assessment charge for the 2016/17 session will show on students' personal financial accounts commencing in September, and/or within 2 working days after enrolment has been completed. Please note that payment should still be made if the charge is not showing on the account within this timescale.

Students following a taught program of study, commencing in February, should pay in full by 1st February, taking advantage of the 1% discount. If you do not pay your fees in full the following rule applies for all students: - 50% on 1 February & 50% on 1 May. Fees for this group of students are charged annually in February of each year.

Postgraduate research students commencing studies later than October will be charged pro rata for the first year, and should pay within 7 days of the start of their course, taking advantage of the 1% discount. If you do not pay your fees in full the following rules apply: - all students starting before 1 January 2017: 50% on enrolment; 50% on 9 January 2017. Every student starting from 1 January 2017: 100% on enrolment.

Where fees (or portion of fees) are paid by other sources

Students with funding from other sources e.g. Research Council, employer, foreign Embassy/Government etc. are required to provide the University with a copy of their official letter of sponsorship. All students should carefully check their sponsor details when they enrol and, if they are incorrect, should complete the Fees Office sponsorship notification form SP1 available from <http://www.southampton.ac.uk/uni-life/fees-funding/paying-your-fees.page>.

Please note that failure to return the SP1 form by 3 October 2016 will result in students being asked to pay the full fee. The SP1 or any official sponsor letter should be emailed to sponfee@soton.ac.uk.

Fees paid by Research Councils, the SLC or the NHS are paid in accordance with government guidelines. All other sponsors will receive an invoice, which is to be paid within 30 days of date of invoice. Discount does not apply in such cases. The liability to pay fees is transferred to the student if the named sponsor subsequently fails to pay the fees. Sponsored students should regularly log onto their University financial account via the Sussed portal, where they will be able to view all charges assigned (including those assigned to sponsors). All communications regarding your fees will be sent to your @soton.ac.uk email address.

Other Information

Failure to pay residence charges in accordance with hall of residence regulations will result in students being issued with a formal notice to quit letter.
