Do you have 'roots' in music?

Are you interested in a future within the music industry?

Not quite sure how to go about it?

Do you want to find out more about potential musical career prospects?

'Musical Routes' is a series of careers events aimed at students and members of the wider community across Hampshire who wish to pursue a career in the music industry.

Launch event - Wednesday 25th May 2011

This event comprises a panel discussion between a diverse and exciting handful of representatives from music organisations and independent music practitioners. Questions and comments from the audience will be welcome throughout the discussion. The evening will then open up into a meet, greet and chat drinks reception, open to all attendees and panel members. Stalls from a variety of musical organisations will be open for perusal over drinks and nibbles.

Schedule

6pm – Welcome by Hannah Williams - Director of Foundation Music at The University of Winchester

6.05pm – Panel members introductions and anecdotes about their own 'route' through the music industry

6.25-7.15pm – Panel discussion

7.15 – Closing questions and comments.

7.30 – 9pm – Drinks reception
