

MS 45

AO281            Papers of William Mogg

A large and small version of a medal depicting on one side a ship and sailors in an Arctic environment with the inscription 'For Arctic discoveries, 1818-1855' and on the other side a head of Queen Victoria. The medals were awarded to Mogg on 9 May 1857. They were presented by Mogg to the Hartley Institution [now the University of Southampton] on 2 August 1871