

'Writing Refugees into History'

7 September 2009

Venue: The Atrium, University of Glamorgan, Cardiff

There is no charge for conference attendance.

9.30. Registration in CA228; coffee

10.00. Sharif Gemie (University of Glamorgan): Welcome to Delegates

Scott Soo (University of Southampton): 'Introduction: The EXILIO network'

10. 30. Xosé-Manoel Núñez-Seixas (University of Santiago, Galicia), 'Exile as an itinerary of forced migration: Collective biographies as a way to study the Galician exile of 1936-39'

11. 30 break

12.00. Hanna Diamond (University of Bath), 'Photographic Narratives of Refugees in France'

1.00. lunch

2.00. Célia Keren (Ecole des Hautes Etudes en Sciences Sociales, Paris), 'From Spain, 1936, to La Rouvière colony, 1940: the autobiographies of the refugee children at La Rouvière Quaker home'

3.00. Geneviève Dreyfus-Armand (Bibliothèque de Documentation Internationale Contemporaine, Paris), Documentary Sources in Paris

3.15. break; move to CB205

3.45. Marianne Amar (Cité nationale de l'histoire de l'immigration, Paris), 'From border to internment camp: photographic representations of Spanish refugees'

4.15. Glenn Davidson (Artstation, Cardiff), 'Exposing Research to the Public Mind – issues of exhibiting'

5.00. end of conference

Tuesday 8 September

9.30 – 12.00: Business Meeting of the EXILIO network (CA419)

For further details, contact: sgemie@glam.ac.uk

Organizers: Outcast Europe & The Exilio Network: Research into Refugees and other Migrations

Arts & Humanities
Research Council