

breaking boundaries II

9 September 2010

Lecture Theatre, Institute of Developmental Sciences
Southampton General Hospital

---

- 09.30am Registration
- 10.15am Introduction
Philip Nelson - Pro Vice-Chancellor, University of Southampton
- Morning session - Richard Oreffo (chair)
- 10.30am Building a successful company from innovative science
Simon Kerry - CEO, Karus Therapeutics
- 11.00am Academia to industry: entrepreneurship in biology
Julian Burke - Chief Scientific Officer, Genetix
- 11.30am Planning for success: a customer's view
Andrew Wood - Director, Idfac Ltd
- 12 noon The sharp end: am I cut out for this?
Jack Boyer - Chair Southampton Asset Management, Ilika plc & iQur Ltd
- 12.30pm - 1.15pm Lunch
- Afternoon session - Paul Townsend (chair)
- 1.15pm Modern biotechnology: an uphill struggle in Europe
Mark Cantley - independent, formally head of biotech policy units in EC, OECD
- 1.45pm Engaging with pharma: driving the science
Malcolm Skingle - Director, GlaxoSmithKline
- 2.15pm From idea to commercialisation: the commercial reality
Jan Ward - CEO, Corrotherm International Ltd
- 2.45pm Operating at a distance: making the change from professional to entrepreneur
Peter Johnson - Vice President, Avery Dennison Medical Products Division
- 3.15pm Q&A - panel session (all speakers) chaired by Tony Raven - Director of Research & Innovation Services, University of Southampton
- 3.45pm Tea & cakes

CLOSE