

MS 293

A1015 Papers of the Stott family relating to Jewish refugees from Germany and Austria

Cecil and Joan Stott took in refugees during World War II. In particular they provided a home for four members of the Adler family who were connected to the well-known psychologist Alfred Adler, a contemporary of Sigmund Freud.

- |    |   |               |
|----|---|---------------|
| 1  | File 'the Jewish refugees in Letchmore Heath': papers on the pre-war economic situation; correspondence on behalf of and by refugees, including with the German Jewish Aid Committee Immigration Department the Jewish Refugees Committee and other refugee organisations relating to Sigmund Adler; copy of Das Neue Tage-Buch ; copy of official document for Kurt Fritz Adler; copy of typescript paper 'Suggestions for refugee problems'  | 1932-45       |
| 2  | Correspondence on behalf of and by refugees; Christmas cards produced in aid of the Spanish Medical Aid Committee; photographs; curriculum vitae  | 1938-45, 1957 |
| 3  | Photographs of Adler family members; postcards  | 1938-83       |
| 4  | National Gallery concert programmes; Christmas cards produced in aid of the Spanish Medical Aid Committee; newspaper cuttings   | 1938-46       |
| 5  | Typescript paper Aldenham and Letchmore Heath during the war' by [Judith Graham née Stott]  | n.d. [1995]   |
| 6  | Notebook containing notes on mustard gas and reminiscences on being released from prison  | n.d.          |
| 7  | Editions 3 and 4 of The Kitchener Camp Review  | May-Jun 1939  |
| 8  | Joan Stott's copy of the booklet While you are in England: helpful information and guidance for every refugee  | n.d. [1940s]  |
| 9  | Air raid precaution memorandums and handbook; copies of Hansard containing the reports on questions on the aliens nationalisation act and the admission to Great Britain of distressed persons; Papers concerning the treatment of German nationals in Germany   | 1936-45       |
| 10 | Pamphlets: " Let my people go ": some practical proposals for dealing with Hitler's massacre of the Jews and an appeal to the British public by Victor Gollancz; " One of these little ones... ": a plea to parents and others for Europe's children by Vera Brittain; Peace among the nations: being the testimony of the Society of Friends on war ; The war trade and the Christian conscience ; The problem of Palestine by Maude Royden; Why you should be a socialist by John Strachey; " Nowhere to lay their heads ": the Jewish tragedy in Europe and its solution by Victor Gollancz; What Buchenwald really means by Victor Gollancz; The Jewish question by George Sacks | n.d. [1940s]  |
| 11 | Pamphlets: A war-less world: an appeal to the Churches of Christ in all countries ; The economics of the refugee problem by Dorothy Frances Buxton; The religion of the non-religious Jews by F.R.Bienenfeld; Unemployment: how 100,000 men have been helped : report of the Friends Allotments Committee, 1932-3; copy   | c.1933-61     |

- of Tricolore, 1944; War in the air? the attitude of the government by P.J.Noel Baker; If the Kaiser governed Britain: the lesson of Germany by William Stephen Sanders; Calling all nations by T.O.Beachcroft; Relief of European starvation: further development; The word of the Cross; Friends' international service to-day leaflets on pension allowances
- 12 Articles; newspaper cuttings; copies of The Tribunal and Reality and Zions Freund; International Peace campaign newsletter; cartoons; flyer for a book of folk songs 1918-44
- 13 Books: Auschwitz nöi Tabor by Lukacs Agnes Rajzai (1946); Alfred Adler: apostle of freedom by Phyllis Bottome; Evangelisches feldgesangbuch; address book 1946, n.d.