

EXCELLENCE WITH IMPACT

PARTICIPANT

Early career researcher BBSRC sequencing grant application rules:

1. Applicant must be early career researcher (less than 4 years post-viva on 7th May 2015, research students are also eligible);
2. Applications must be 100 words or less, plus a project title, and be sent by 30th April to blings@soton.ac.uk;
3. Ethical approval (if required) must be in place on application;
4. All funds (maximum £2,500) must be spent on nucleic acid sample preparation and the generation of next-generation sequence data (of any species);
5. ECR applicant must lead the project although others may be involved in the project;
6. Funds must be spent within one year of award;
7. Shortlisted entries will be required to give 2 minute presentation on 7th May prior to final decision;
8. Successful applicant will present work in 2016 NGS Symposium;
9. Decision of judges is final.