I am delighted to welcome you to the University of Southampton Open Day.

Your university experience is about more than your course, it's about the next chapter of your life. At Southampton, you can grow academically and personally, meet like-minded people and work towards achieving your dreams. Our job is to help you do this.

We are an institution in the top one per cent of global universities* and a founding member of the prestigious Russell Group of research-intensive UK universities. But we offer more than a taught education – we will support you in your studies, help you achieve a good work/life balance and prepare you for life after university.

Our Open Days aim to give you a glimpse of what your life at Southampton could be like. Our world-leading academics will inspire you with their enthusiasm and our students will show you round the beautiful green campuses where you can sample some of the student societies and sports clubs on offer.

I hope you choose Southampton as your home away from home. Choose a university that shares your passion for learning and discovery; a place you can grow and develop the skills you need to achieve your goals.

Professor Sir Christopher Snowden,
President and Vice-Chancellor

Southampton has one of the biggest Students' Unions in the country, with over 280 societies and 90 sports clubs. Our students run our award-winning media channels (covering radio, TV and magazines) and we are one of the only unions in the country to have our own cinema, showing all the latest films.

The Students' Union is here to represent you at every level – from the course reps who represent you within your faculties, to people like me and the other sabbatical officers who are elected to represent you full time. We also run a dedicated Advice Centre, which gives you independent, impartial advice when you need it.

Make sure you pop in and see us today – you'll spot us walking around campus, so say hello and ask us about student life and what the Union can offer you as a student!

Flora Noble,
Union President

CAMPUS DEVELOPMENTS

The University is committed to investing in high-quality facilities for our students.

This summer, construction begins on our new Centre for Teaching and Learning, due to open on Highfield Campus in 2019. The new building will feature a 250-seat lecture theatre, a range of adaptable group teaching spaces, a computer suite, café and a variety of independent study areas.

Construction is already underway on our National Infrastructure Laboratory on Boldrewood Innovation Campus, also due to open in 2019. This purpose-built facility will house state-of-the-art research laboratories to develop our understanding of transport infrastructure, and is supported by £36m of government investment as part of a national partnership.

Our new Centre for Cancer Immunology is nearing completion at University Hospital Southampton. This specialist facility will be the first dedicated centre of its kind in the UK.

Our latest residential building, Chamberlain Hall, opened last year at our Glen Eyre complex. The Hall represents a £36m investment by the University and offers 365 en suite bedrooms with shared kitchens, common rooms and a range of study spaces.

PLAN YOUR DAY

At our Open Days, we aim to give you a glimpse of what your life at Southampton could be like. The Open Day is the first step on your university journey; use our top tips to help you get the most from your day.

Visit our information fair and check in

Take the time to visit the Information Fair in Building 18 (Jubilee Sports Centre). Here you can speak to representatives from subject areas, clubs and societies, and the services that will support you during your time as a Southampton student. Don't forget your ticket so you can check in.

Download the app

Create your personalised schedule for the day using our free Open Day app. Search 'MySouthampton' in your app store.

See the city

Make the most of your day by visiting Southampton city centre. Our regular unilink bus services will take you into town in 15 minutes. You can take a tour of the city, enjoy something to eat and drink or even see a show at the Mayflower Theatre.

Take a break

There are many places to grab something to eat or drink on each of our campuses, with special deals for our Open Day visitors.

Attend a subject talk

Subject talks will run throughout the day on our Highfield, Avenue and Boldrewood Innovation Campuses, as well as at the National Oceanography Centre Southampton.

The subject talks will provide information about what it's like to study at Southampton and what modules you can take. You will also have the opportunity to ask questions about your chosen area of study.

Take a tour

A guided campus tour is the best way to see the facilities on Highfield Campus. Tours are led by our Student ambassadors who will give real insight into life at Southampton.

CHECK IN

All visitors are required to check in on the day. In the week leading up to the Open Day, you will receive an email from us with your own personalised event ticket and QR code, which you'll need to bring in order to check in on the day.

Your step-by-step guide to check in:

1 Print off your ticket, or make sure you can access it on your smartphone so you can show it on the day.

2 At some point during your day head to one of our check-in points – there is one on Highfield Campus, Boldrewood Innovation Campus, Avenue Campus and at the National Oceanography Centre, Southampton.

3 Get your ticket scanned! This lets us know you've attended the Open Day.

EXPLORING THE CITY

Southampton is one of the most lively and dynamic cities in the south of England. It was also voted the ninth happiest city in the UK for work/life balance by The Guardian.*

The city welcomes over four million visitors a year and boasts an impressive cultural offering, from museums, music venues and art galleries, to magnificent theatres and rich historical buildings such as the Tudor House and Gardens.

If you enjoy shopping, The Marlands and West Quay shopping centres will fulfil all of your needs. With over 180 stores, they host both large brands and boutique shops for all your interests.

Southampton is bursting with places to eat and drink thanks to the development of West Quay Watermark, with over 20 new restaurants and bars. If you prefer scenic views, there are plenty of cafés and restaurants by Ocean Village Marina to sit outside and enjoy the sea breeze.

The nightlife in Southampton is buzzing, with popular bars and clubs for you to visit and a variety of student promotions to entice you.

The award-winning parks make Southampton the greenest city in southern England, and Southampton Common has over 300 acres of woodland, parkland and nature trails for you to enjoy.

Why not take one of our free bus services after the Open Day and explore all that the city has to offer?

“Southampton is such a great city to be a student in. There is always something going on and the city is well connected to Bournemouth, Portsmouth and even London.”

Shaheer Khan,
BSc Geography
