- PGR students starting after 28th April 2025 should make full payment upon enrolment.

PGR tuition fees are calculated on a monthly pro rata basis for the academic year. Students who withdraw, suspend or transfer to Nominal part way through a month will be charged full fees for that month.

At the start of Nominal registration a single fee of £250 is payable in full.

PAYMENT OF FEES - We do not accept any payments on campus.

To pay fees use this link on our website Pay your fees

We accept the following cards: Visa Credit/Debit, Mastercard and American Express and bank transfer. Students should notify their card provider that a large transaction is being made.

Payment of fees by Third Parties (Sponsors)

- Students with funding from other sources e.g. Research Council, employer, foreign Embassy/Government etc. need to provide the Fees Office with a copy of their official letter of sponsorship or complete the Sponsorship Form SP1 available from SP1 form
- Failure to return sponsor information by 30th September will result in students being asked to pay the full tuition fee. The SP1 form or any official sponsor letter should be emailed to sponfee@soton.ac.uk.
- Tuition fees paid by Research Councils or the SLC are paid in accordance with government guidelines. All other sponsors will receive an invoice, which is to be paid within 30 days of date of invoice. The liability to pay tuition fees is transferred to the student if the named sponsor subsequently fails to pay the tuition fees. Sponsored students should regularly log onto their personal financial account to view all outstanding fees.

OTHER INFORMATION

- All residence charges should be paid in accordance with the Hall of Residence regulations. Failure to pay these charges will result in students being issued with a formal notice to quit letter. Halls of Residence Regulations.
- All miscellaneous fees should be paid in full with 7 days of date of invoice.
- Any change in tuition fee funding should be notified to the Student Hub without delay and if personal circumstances change after commencing a programme and students are unable to comply with the above payment policy, they should contact the Student Hub without delay for appropriate advice.
- Full University regulations governing fees can be found at Tuition Fee Regulations.
- The fees refund policy can be found at Refund Policy.
- Information regarding bursaries, fee waivers and other grants offered by the University can be found at Student Support Fund.

Tuition fees can increase each year so please read the following carefully and refer to the fees section of the University web page at Undergraduate tuition fees or Postgraduate tuition fees.

Failure to pay tuition fees as per the University's regulations will result in your Head of Academic Unit being notified. Non-payment of tuition fees will mean the immediate removal of library, computer and other facilities, your exclusion from classes and lectures, and may result in termination from University candidature. Any such debts will then be pursued by referral to an outside collection agency. Regulations may vary for those programmes with non-standard commencement dates.

To provide an efficient and student centred service, all enquiries should be made to the Student Hub in the George Thomas Building. The student advisors in the Hub can be contacted by e-mail to studenthub@soton.ac.uk.
