

ACADEMIC LANGUAGE SKILLS ADVISING (ALSA)

What?

Students will often need some help and guidance apart from what their department offers.

Victoria and Peter specialise in helping international students in particular.

If your first language is not English you may have questions about academic language skills that native English speakers already feel confident with OR you may be a native speaker who just feels they would like to have some extra time with someone who can answer questions related to academic language skills.

If this sounds like you - we can help!

You can book sessions with us via:

<https://outlook.office365.com/owa/calendar/AcademicLanguageSkillsAdvisingALSA@soton.ac.onmicrosoft.com/bookings/>

All sessions are free.

'Focus on...': If you have friends with similar problems group together and we can prepare a session of 45 minutes for your particular needs.

We have a room in Avenue Campus.

We can offer online sessions if you prefer.
