

February 2nd - Michele Scotto di Vettimo (Exeter, UK)
Do the media scrutinise central banking? Evidence from the Bank of England. (with Christel Koop, KCL)

@MicheleScottodV

@katharina_law

February 9th - Katharina Lawall (LSE, UK)
"Protect our women": The effects of gendered anti-immigration messages.

February 23rd - Alberto López-Ortega (VU Amsterdam, Netherlands)
Studying Candidates' Diversity through a Visual Conjoint Experiment. (with Marco Radojevic, Universität Zürich)

@bertous

@esdsantos

March 2nd - Eraldo Souza dos Santos (Universität Potsdam, Germany)
What is Complete Civil Disobedience?

@HRMcCabe

March 9th - Helen McCabe (Uni. of Nottingham, UK)
John Stuart Mill on Marriage and Slavery

@psingh_2016

April 27th - Priyadarshini Singh (Centre for Policy Research, India)
Grassroots Narratives of National Pride: Problematizing binaries

May 11th - Diane Bolet (Universität Zürich, Switzerland)
Is the Green New Deal a vote-winner? Evidence from Spanish National Election Results. (with Fergus Green, UCL & Mikel González-Eguino, BC3)

@dianebolet

@mxkes_

May 15th - Mike Bankole (KCL, UK)
In their own words: Explaining and addressing the persistent under representation of ethnic minorities in the House of Commons.