

University Calendar 2019/20

Academic Regulations: Faculty of Environmental and Life Sciences

School	Psychology
Final Award	Doctor of Educational Psychology
Programme(s)	Doctor of Educational Psychology
Last modified	May 2019

The Academic Regulations which are detailed in Section V: Regulations for Research Degrees and Higher Doctorates, and Section IV: General Information and Regulations of the Calendar, apply to and regulate the programme(s) listed above.

On occasion, programmes can be exempted from one or more of the clauses in the Regulations; one or more of the clauses can be varied; and programmes can impose additional requirements.

- Exemptions are characterised by the omission of the relevant clause.
- Variations are characterised by the replacement of the clause with alternative wording.
- Additions are characterised by requirements in addition to those detailed in the Academic regulations.

The programmes listed have approval from the Academic Quality and Standards Committee for the exemptions and/or variations and/or additions to the regulations noted below.

Exemptions:

The clause(s) listed below describe where an exemption to the Regulations exists:

Existing University regulation (including link)	Approved Exemption
Regulations for Research Degrees	Candidates are exempt from the right to repeat any taught module (internally or externally) following a failure of more than half the modules in a Part, or following resubmission.

Variations:

The clause(s) listed below describe where a variation to the Regulations exists:

Existing University regulation (including link)	Approved Variation
Regulations for Research Degrees	Taught modules are passed at 50% but placements are marked on a pass/fail basis only.

Additional requirements:

The clause(s) listed below are in addition to the Regulations:

Existing University regulation (including link)	Approved Additional Requirement
Regulations for Research Degrees	Continuation on the programme is subject to specific health requirements (consistent with the provisions of the Equality Act 2010). Students are required to inform the Faculty of any health problems throughout their period of enrolment, relevant to their future employment as a professional. A candidate will be deemed to have failed the programme, without the right of re-entry, on one or more of the following grounds: (i) Candidates must pass at least 50% of the credits in each part at the first attempt. (ii) Failure of a practical placement will lead to failure of the programme unless there has been successful corrective action. (iii) Failure to complete all elements of a summative assessment to a satisfactory standard within 5 years of first registration, or by such a date as will have been agreed by the Board of Examiners. (iv) Failure of a resubmission. There is no right to repeat a Part. (v) In exceptional circumstances such as gross misconduct or a serious breach of the Code of Conduct of the British Psychological Society, or if the placement is terminated or suspended after disciplinary action, the Board of Examiners reserves the right to fail a candidate without permitting re-entry.

--	--	--

These regulations should be read in conjunction with the programme specification.

Disclaimer:

As a research-led University, we undertake a continuous review of our programmes to ensure quality enhancement and to manage our resources. As a result, these regulations may be revised during a student's period of registration, however, any revision will be balanced against the requirement that the student should receive the educational service expected. Please read our Disclaimer to see why, when and how changes may be made to a student's programme.