The Academic Regulations which are detailed in Section IV, General Information and Regulations, located in the University Calendar apply to and regulate the programme(s) listed above.

On occasion, programmes can be exempted from one or more of the clauses in the Regulations; one or more of the clauses can be varied; and programmes can impose additional requirements.

- Exemptions are characterised by the omission of the relevant clause.
- Variations are characterised by the replacement of the clause with alternative wording.
- Additions are characterised by requirements in addition to those detailed in the Academic regulations.

The programmes listed have approval from the Academic Quality and Standards Committee for the exemptions and/or variations and/or additions to the regulations noted below.

All BM Programmes (unless otherwise stated)

Definitions:
The definitions used by the Faculty are as per the University regulations with the following exception:

Year | The Faculty refers to Years in the following regulations. A Year is equivalent to the term Part as referred to in the University regulations.

Exemptions:
The clause(s) listed below describe where an exemption to the Regulations exists.

- Integrated Masters in Medical Sciences is exempt from clause 5.4 under section 5: Repeat of the Progression, Determination and Classification of Results for Undergraduate and Integrated Masters Programmes.
- Students do not have the right to repeat externally and must repeat internally.

Variations:
The clause(s) listed below describe where a variation to the Regulations exists.

None apply

Additional Requirements:
The clause(s) listed below are in addition to the Regulations.

- All modules once selected are core.

These regulations should be read in conjunction with the programme specification.

Disclaimer:
As a research-led University, we undertake a continuous review of our programmes to ensure quality enhancement and to manage our resources. As a result, these regulations may be revised during a student’s period of registration, however, any revision will be balanced against the requirement that the student should receive the educational service expected. Please read our Disclaimer to see why, when and how changes may be made to a student’s programme.
