Applied Linguistics (English Language Teaching)

1. At the end of Year 1 an overall average mark of 60 or above is required in the taught component and a pass mark of 65 in the research proposal in order to continue to the research phase of the iPhD programme (Part 2).
2. All taught modules in years 2 and 3 must be passed with a mark of 60 or above.
3. Candidates who pass the taught part of the programme but fail to achieve the pass mark for the research proposal may be permitted to undertake supervised research for a Master's dissertation for the award of the MA, provided they have met the requirements of the University's Regulations for Postgraduate Master's Programmes.

These regulations should be read in conjunction with the programme specification.

Disclaimer:

As a research-led University, we undertake a continuous review of our programmes to ensure quality enhancement and to manage our resources. As a result, these regulations may be revised during a student's period of registration, however, any revision will be balanced against the requirement that the student should receive the educational service expected. Please read our Disclaimer to see why, when and how changes may be made to a student's programme.
