

HSK (Chinese Proficiency Test) - 汉语水平考试

The Southampton Confucius Institute is proud to be one of the official HSK test centres in the UK authorised by the HSK Department (www.chinesetesting.cn), The Chinese Language Council International (also known as Hanban).

The Hanyu Shuiping Kaoshi (HSK) is an official examination designed to assess the Chinese language proficiency of non-native speakers from beginners to advanced Level (divided in levels 1-6). It is an internationally recognized standard in assessing your Chinese language level and can be used as a concrete reference tool of your Chinese language skills to employers, institutions, schools and other international organisations. The HSK tests your writing, listening and reading skills.

The Southampton Confucius Institute has been given permission to administer written tests (HSK level 1 ~ level 6) and oral tests (HSKK).

Those who achieve high marks in HSK tests may be eligible to apply for scholarships offered by Hanban to undertake various courses in China.
