Microcirculation and the vasculature 2020
70th Meeting of the British Microcirculation Society
Abstract Submission Guidelines

Abstract deadline: Friday 31st January, 2020 (23.59 GMT)

Students - remember that there are travel awards available to help attend the conference:
http://www.microcirculation.org.uk/prize-award/student-assistance-scheme/

Please send an abstract formatted as below to: millart@soton.ac.uk

Note in particular:

1. The title should be written in Title Case (each word capitalised) and in bold. The title should indicate the main contents of the abstract.
2. New line for authors (in bold). The presenting author’s name should be underlined. Full given name, initial of other names followed by a full stop, family name/surname
3. New line for address (sufficient for mailing, including country).
4. Email address of presenting author on a new line.
5. New line for text. Please observe the following:
   5a. 1800 Characters including spaces
   5b. The abstract should not contain any unexplained abbreviations.
   5c. Anaesthesia must be stated where appropriate
   5d. References, if any, should be included in the text (e.g. Curry et al. (1976). J Physiol 261:319–336)

An example would be:

The British Microcirculation Society Welcomes You
Andrew N. Other, James T. Else, Dierdre A.B. Habanero-Jalapeno
Cancer Biology, University of Nowhere, Nowhere, AB27 3BC, UK
a.n.other@nowhere.ac.uk
1800 characters abstract

Abstracts should be written in Word and sent as an attachment by email to millart@soton.ac.uk before 23.59 (GMT) on Friday 31st January 2020. Please include your full postal mailing address, telephone / fax numbers and e-mail details. Also, please include in the covering email whether you would prefer an ORAL or POSTER presentation. (Final allocation is at the discretion of the organiser and depends on the pressure of space, time and demands of the programme. Your preference will, of course, be respected wherever possible).

All delegates who submit an abstract will be contacted by the organisers shortly after the abstract deadline informing them of their abstract acceptance and whether it is an oral or poster presentation. Those who have not heard before the early registration deadline 28th of February 2020) should contact Dr Tim Millar: millart@soton.ac.uk

Oral presentations (other than symposia presentations) are strictly limited to 10 minutes with 5 minutes for questions. PC computers are available for oral presentations in the lecture theatre where the presentations will be made. Powerpoint presentations should be bought on a USB stick. To facilitate smooth running of scientific sessions, the use of personal laptops for presentations is actively discouraged.

Poster presentations - Please prepare posters in A0 portrait format.