ASPREY'S

Concise Pocket Encyclopædia

CLOTH 3/- NET (Postage 3d.) LEATHER 7/6

5 × 3½ × 1 inches. 720 pages. Thin Paper, Clear Print.

A RECENT REVIEW:

"For home or office use there is no better or handier little all-round reference book than the Concise Pocket Encyclopædia, published by Messrs. Asprey & Co., Ltd. It manages to compress the maximum of useful information within the minimum of space, yet is clearly printed and interestingly written. It is well described, for it really is an 'encyclopædia,' it really is 'concise,' and it really is of a size convenient for the pocket. Printed on thin but opaque paper it is easy to read, and, nicely bound in cloth, is wonderful value for sale at 3s."

Camping Night on the Mountains Trafalgar Day.

Glorious morn, though freezing cold in the night. Have glad to get up early and go out and sit in the sun on the ground to have our breakfast. Lovely wild rocky & craggy country. Packed up about 9. and then continued on the Kazbin. There he called Mrs & I saw some lovely things including the Tomb of Sultan Hussein. Perfect beautiful tiled gallery & mosque with cut-glass facade, tiled marble carved walls & small shrines. Coloring & design exquisite. Lunched at hotel & drove on for 4 hours reaching Teheran about 7. after one puncture & stop for tea. Back to Talbot.

Athens

3rd Sunday in Advent.

Rather hot Sunny day. Went to the National Museum in the Early morning. Lovely sculptures and bronzes. Then drove out with the Millāxes and some others to Cape Sounion to lunch with a cousin of theirs Zarifi who has a delicious little creek and bungalow right on the sea. Delightful drive in the sun & with the afternoon wind up to the Doric marble temple of Poseidon on the point of the Cape. Glorious white marble pillars & unsurpassed view. Dined & a reception in our honour given by the Hellenic Club the Greek Royalists there. Talked with the Polish Minister Sir Patrick Ramsay & wife. Jamaica & Brindle after.

Train

Cold out but hot in the train Uneventful day spent chiefly eating sleeping & reading Passed through Nish and Belgrade. Slow journey but very comfortable food service and very hot water.
(Oil lamps from Persia and the Oil Fields is that Persia has peremptorily cancelled the Anglo-Persian Concession being dissatisfied with the 16 per cent.
they receive & the natural fall in income.
No legal rights & the Government has cancelled concession. Difficulty

Train
Trieste Milan

Wednesday, December 14

Passed through Trieste and between hazy hollow up to a completely snow covered ground rolling hills itself. Gradually disappeared and turned to rain by the time we reached Milan at 6.30 There I had a and I parted at the Gares on to Paris & England. I down to Jean Didier in Malle Great excitement as I discovered just too late the train of the previous 10 minutes that my small trunk had gone wrong & labelled to Paris & I had to have to hold all! Dined & walked at the new Milan hotel Excelsior Scaldino - Took the 10 o'clock train to Rome.

Rome

Thursday, December 15

Arrived in Carl manier 2 pieces of luggage Brindl in Perm & campbell Thand & beer in Milan & curtains were stuck. left. unfit. Small hopeless Filter gave! Drove to Grand Hotel & breakfasted & then did a bit of walking & shopping, letting big photos to be done & buying a few presents & ties = Lunched with Aileen Bramca who did live at the Grand Hotel often with her and a man she knows in the wonderful Fascist Exhibition celebrating the X^th anniversary of Fascism. Quite wonderful. More shopping & hair & nails done. Captain Ramsay (Naval Attaché) to see me & dined with Princess Jane San Faustino. Cinema

Rome Naples Syracuse

Rose at 5 30 & left for Stia at 6 15 as I had tally. The 9 o'clock plane to Malta. Good trip to Naples where I had coffee with the pilot and then on to Syracuse which we reached at twelve thirty-There we had very bad weather report from Malta & they said it was still impossible for us to proceed as the fog was too dense & fog furious & disappointed. So went up to the Villa Politi where I spent a dismal afternoon & retired to bed for dinner. Feeling ill with the barometer
