

Declaration of Academic Integrity – online assessment

Advanced notice for students.

Note to schools: This longer version should be shared with students well in advance of the assessment so that they have sufficient time to look at the linked resources and ask questions.

In attempting this online assessment and submitting your work, you are confirming that:

1. You have read and understood the Regulations Governing Academic Integrity and the University's Academic Integrity Guidance, in particular noting:
 - This is your own, unaided work, with any use of other sources being fully acknowledged as expected in your discipline.
 - You have only used resources specifically allowed within the assessment (e.g. source texts, calculators, software).
 - Except where specifically permitted in the assignment, you have not communicated with anyone about the topic of this assessment (including discussing or sharing the questions or answers in any way) during the time that the assessment was available to students. This includes social media or other forms of electronic/personal communication.
 - You have not accessed any unauthorised support from other students, resources, or external people (including friends and family members) in relation to the assessment through any route including social media or other forms of electronic/personal communication.
2. You are aware that failure to act in accordance with Regulations Governing Academic Integrity may lead to the imposition of penalties which, for the most serious cases, may include termination of programme.

3. You consent to the University copying and distributing any or all of your work in any form and using third parties from anywhere in the world to verify whether your work contains plagiarised material, and for quality assurance purposes.

There will be clear indications with the assessment about who to contact if you have any queries. The University will communicate with all students via University email addresses, if necessary, during the assessment.
