Programme Overview

Brief outline of the programme

The programme provides you with an opportunity to study the theory and practice of education from the perspective of learners, teachers, administrators, policymakers and other key stakeholders in the system of formal education.

You will undertake work based in the University with opportunities to follow-up this theoretical work in an age appropriate setting i.e. School/College/Sixth form.

The aims of the programmes are to create reflective, research-led teachers who are able to critically analyse their own practice in order to make progress while training – and in their teaching careers.

Your contact hours will vary depending on your module/option choices. Full information about contact hours is provided in individual module profiles.

Learning and teaching

Depending on the scale and scope of the sessions, you will be encouraged to engage and participate in a number of ways. You will also be expected to take responsibility for your own learning and make contributions to the sessions and work collaboratively with your peer group. You will find that sessions vary and may make use of data sets, case study materials, problem-solving activities, group discussions, presentations, video, audio, other electronic resources and potentially educational artefacts. In summary: lectures, seminars, small group meetings, tutorials, directed and self-directed study, independent research.

Assessment

Summative assessments, including assignments, are designed to enable you to demonstrate and develop your knowledge and understanding, and intellectual and transferable skills.

The summative assessment for each of the three modules you will study will be assessed through assignments totalling the equivalent of 3 x 4000 words. At least one of the three assignments will normally require some form oral/presentational response. The assessment of the core module taught at UG level will involve the submission of a portfolio that evidences meeting the Teachers' Standards to the required level, and written reflections on the content of this portfolio.

Special Features of the programme

The PGCE (Primary and Secondary) programme trains school teachers within a research-based environment that is well-supported by a strong partnership of schools and mentors. This enables you to develop the necessary knowledge, skills and understanding to become a better critical and reflective practitioner. To further support this development the programme offers flexibility and personalisation as you are encouraged to follow your own areas of interest and work on different areas of need. This involves having choices within your assignments and taking part in a range of additional opportunities.

Please note: As a research-led University, we undertake a continuous review of our programmes to ensure quality enhancement and to manage our resources. As a result, this programme may be revised during a student's period of registration; however, any revision will be balanced against the requirement that the student should receive the educational service expected. Please read our Disclaimer to see why, when and how changes may be made to a student's programme.

Programmes and major changes to programmes are approved through the University's programme validation process which is described in the University's Quality handbook.

Educational Aims of the Programme

- To equip you with a rigorous knowledge and understanding of the core areas of education – teaching, learning and assessment, professional values and practice;
- To recognise the complex interrelationship between educational theory, policy and practice;
- To enable you to apply educational analysis to issues of your own professional practice;
- To introduce you to conceptual and analytic methods used in educational research, and to provide opportunities for the development and application of these tools;
- To enable you to develop critical, evaluative and reflective thinking in the context of your own professional practice;
- To enable you to develop a range of skills and abilities that will contribute to your effectiveness as a professional educator;
- To support you as an independent learner, and in planning your studies and subsequent career development.

Programme Structure

The programme structure table is below:

Information about pre and co-requisites is included in individual module profiles.

Where optional modules have been specified, the following is an indicative list of available optional modules, which are subject to change each academic year. Please note in some instances modules have limited spaces available.

Primary Pathway

Part I

The award of Postgraduate Certificate in Education is determined through assessment outcomes.

This is a full-time programme taken over one academic year. The programme starts in September and follows a traditional pattern of an academic year. Between University sessions, you will be expected to be in a position where you can access the classroom, either through your enrolment on a QTS accredited route into teaching, or through teaching as an unqualified, or qualified, teacher in a school. You must be able to build on your learning in each context. You will be required to submit three Level 7 assignments over the course of the academic year.

The programme has three modules taught at FHEQ Level 7 (10 ECTS/20 CATS per module). Detailed information regarding each module will be available to you via the Student Record Self-Service system once you enrol at the University.

Students who achieve the Post Graduate Certificate in Education may APEL their 30 ECTS/60 CATS credits towards a full Masters Degree (90 ECTS/180 CATS credits).

Exemption/Variation to Regulations

Exemption: This programme is exempt from Clauses 5.1 to 5.6 of section 5 (Repeat) (Progression, Determination and Classification of Results: Standalone Masters Programmes). No repeat is permitted.
