Programme Overview

Brief outline of the programme

The study of ageing at the individual and societal levels includes the examination of changes humans undergo as they age, as well as the impact of growing proportions of older people on social institutions, labour markets, welfare systems and families. It investigates the relationships between generations and the interconnections between our older and younger selves. Insights are taken from social policy, demography, sociology, biology, healthcare sciences, psychology and economics. The study of ageing is thus a fundamentally interdisciplinary subject which leads to a fascinating variety of careers.

The programme will offer you the opportunity to study by Distance Learning, to develop your skills in policy evaluation, and to specialise in ageing and its policy implications in particular regions of the world. Your contact hours will vary depending on your module/option choices. Full information about contact hours is provided in individual module profiles.

Learning and teaching
The PG Cert/ PG Dip/ MSc Global Ageing and Policy (DL) programme employs a variety of teaching and learning methods, including lectures that are audio-recorded, supervised independent research and independent study. The majority of the modules are taught in small-groups, which provides excellent opportunities for peer-to-peer learning. Students are expected to engage in group tutorials and Discussion Boards, thereby developing their skills in written presentation. A variety of assessment methods are employed, which include essays, critical literature reviews, audio-recorded oral presentations, a policy proposal, exercises, research reports and the dissertation. All programme modules have their own page on Blackboard, and all students are able to access materials (lecture slides and recordings of lectures, coursework details, references and module updates) to supplement their classroom taught lectures. Distance learning students develop these skills through a variety of interactive online resources and software programmes. An enhanced version of Blackboard is central to their learning experience, providing comprehensive support and guidance on how to use online resources that are key to the programme. All coursework is submitted through Blackboard.

Assessment
The PG Cert/ PG Dip/ MSc Global Ageing and Policy (DL) programme has no exams, but instead includes a range of assessments which are designed to encourage students to reflect on their learning, and to assess their understanding of taught material. For example, students are expected to complete essays and critical reviews of literature, and to prepare short oral presentations which address specific research questions.

Special Features of the programme

The programmes include occasional guest lectures from experts in particular academic topics or who are involved in the design and implementation of local, national or international social policy related to older people.

Please note: As a research-led University, we undertake a continuous review of our programmes to ensure quality enhancement and to manage our resources. As a result, this programme may be revised during a student’s period of registration; however, any revision will be balanced against the requirement that the student should receive the educational service expected. Please read our Disclaimer to see why, when and how changes may be made to a student’s programme.

Programmes and major changes to programmes are approved through the University's programme validation process which is described in the University's Quality handbook.

Educational Aims of the Programme

The aims of the Global Ageing and Policy (DL) programme are to introduce you to the study of ageing by training you in the theories on ageing and the life course, engaging you in key substantive debates in the area of global ageing, allowing you to specialise in ageing in China and South-east Asia or in Sub-Saharan Africa, equipping you with policy evaluation skills, and enhancing your knowledge and skills in research methods (qualitative or quantitative), their application and data such that you are prepared for a career in the field of global ageing, social policy, and applied health and social sciences.

The aims of the Global Ageing and Policy programme are to provide you with:

1.1 Critical appreciation of the key theoretical perspectives within the study of ageing and their application in the analysis of specific issues concerning ageing and the life course.
1.2 Knowledge and understanding of contemporary debates within the study of ageing concerning the lives of older people, their families and society, in both developed and developing countries, and specialised learning of ageing and its policy implications in less developed regions of the world (e.g. China and South-east Asia, Sub-Saharan Africa).
1.3 The ability to evaluate policies and initiatives in ageing societies concerning welfare provision and the lives of older people, their families and carers, and to design policy evaluation tools.

1.4 Knowledge of qualitative or quantitative research methods and the ability to apply them appropriately to investigate key research questions.

1.5 The ability to design and conduct independent research within the study of global ageing and policy using appropriate research methods.

1.6 Preparation for a career in the field of ageing, social policy, and applied health and social sciences.

Programme aims 1.4 and 1.5 are not developed in the PG Diploma Global Ageing and Policy (DL) or PG Certificate Global Ageing and Policy (DL).

Programme Learning Outcomes

Knowledge and Understanding

On successful completion of this programme you will have knowledge and understanding of:

A1. (For MSc Global Ageing & Policy (Distance Learning) Flexible, MSc Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning), PGCert Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning), PGDip Global Ageing & Policy (Distance Learning) Flexible, PGDip Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning) only) The key theoretical and conceptual approaches to the study of ageing and the life course from a multi-disciplinary perspective.

A2. (For MSc Global Ageing & Policy (Distance Learning) Flexible, MSc Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning), PGCert Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning), PGDip Global Ageing & Policy (Distance Learning) Flexible, PGDip Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning) only) Key debates within the study of global ageing.

A3. (For MSc Global Ageing & Policy (Distance Learning) Flexible, MSc Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning), PGCert Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning), PGDip Global Ageing & Policy (Distance Learning) Flexible, PGDip Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning) only) The determinants of demographic change and the consequences of population ageing.

A4. (For MSc Global Ageing & Policy (Distance Learning) Flexible, MSc Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning), PGCert Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning), PGDip Global Ageging & Policy (Distance Learning) Flexible, PGDip Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning) only) Key changes in the life course in the last 100 years and their implications.

A5. (For MSc Global Ageing & Policy (Distance Learning) Flexible, MSc Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning), PGCert Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning), PGDip Global Ageing & Policy (Distance Learning) Flexible, PGDip Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning) only) Health and social care policies and initiatives which impact upon the lives of older people and their families/carers.

A6. (For MSc Global Ageing & Policy (Distance Learning) Flexible, MSc Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning) only) Principles of research design and strategy and the appropriate choice of research method.

A7. (For MSc Global Ageing & Policy (Distance Learning) Flexible, MSc Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning) only) An individual research topic in the field of Gerontology.

Teaching and Learning Methods

Assessment Methods

Coursework (A1, A2, A3, A4, A5, A6) and dissertation (A6, A7).
Subject Specific Intellectual and Research Skills

On successful completion of this programme you will be able to:

B1. (For MSc Global Ageing & Policy (Distance Learning) Flexible, MSc Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning), PGCert Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning), PGDip Global Ageing & Policy (Distance Learning) Flexible, PGDip Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning) only) Appreciate the importance of life course transitions in shaping experiences in old age.

B2. (For MSc Global Ageing & Policy (Distance Learning) Flexible, MSc Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning), PGCert Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning), PGDip Global Ageing & Policy (Distance Learning) Flexible, PGDip Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning) only) Critically evaluate alternative theoretical frameworks and apply them to selected issues and debates within global ageing.

B3. (For MSc Global Ageing & Policy (Distance Learning) Flexible, MSc Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning), PGCert Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning), PGDip Global Ageing & Policy (Distance Learning) Flexible, PGDip Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning) only) Critically assess policy interventions in the fields of health and social care for older people.

B4. (For MSc Global Ageing & Policy (Distance Learning) Flexible, MSc Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning), PGCert Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning), PGDip Global Ageing & Policy (Distance Learning) Flexible, PGDip Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning) only) Critically evaluate policy options for economic and social support for older people, with the option of specialising on either China and South-east Asia, or Sub-Saharan Africa.

B5. (For MSc Global Ageing & Policy (Distance Learning) Flexible, MSc Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning), PGCert Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning), PGDip Global Ageing & Policy (Distance Learning) Flexible, PGDip Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning) only) Identify and solve problems within the field of ageing and the life course.

B6. (For MSc Global Ageing & Policy (Distance Learning) Flexible, MSc Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning), PGCert Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning), PGDip Global Ageing & Policy (Distance Learning) Flexible, PGDip Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning) only) Synthesise key library and internet resources within the field of global ageing.

B7. (For MSc Global Ageing & Policy (Distance Learning) Flexible, MSc Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning) only) Identify appropriate methods of research design and data analysis.

B8. (For MSc Global Ageing & Policy (Distance Learning) Flexible, MSc Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning) only) Analyse and interpret data as applied to issues concerning ageing and the life course.

Teaching and Learning Methods

Audio-recorded lectures (B1, B2, B3, B4, B5, B6, B7, B8), online practice exercises and quizzes (B1, B2, B3, B4, B5, B6, B7, B8), tutor-led discussion board triggers (B1, B2, B3, B4, B5, B6, B7, B8), student discussion boards (B1, B2, B3, B4, B5, B6, B7, B8), and supervised research (B5, B6, B7, B8).

Assessment Methods

Coursework (B1, B2, B3, B4, B5, B6) and dissertation (B1, B2, B3, B4, B5, B6).

Transferable and Generic Skills

On successful completion of this programme you will be able to:

C1. (For MSc Global Ageing & Policy (Distance Learning) Flexible, MSc Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning), PGCert Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning), PGDip Global Ageing & Policy (Distance Learning) Flexible, PGDip Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning) only) Effectively communicate information through PowerPoint/ poster and oral presentations using visual aids and hand-outs.

C2. (For MSc Global Ageing & Policy (Distance Learning) Flexible, MSc Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning), PGCert Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning), PGDip Global Ageing & Policy (Distance Learning) Flexible, PGDip Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning) only) Contribute confidently and appropriately to group discussions/ online discussion boards.

C3. (For MSc Global Ageing & Policy (Distance Learning) Flexible, MSc Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning) only)
C4. (For MSc Global Ageing & Policy (Distance Learning) Flexible, MSc Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning), PGCert Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning), PGDip Global Ageing & Policy (Distance Learning) Flexible, PGDip Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning) only) Effectively communicate information through written reports.

C5. (For MSc Global Ageing & Policy (Distance Learning) Flexible, MSc Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning), PGCert Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning), PGDip Global Ageing & Policy (Distance Learning) Flexible, PGDip Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning) only) Think critically about new and unfamiliar ideas and concepts.

C6. (For MSc Global Ageing & Policy (Distance Learning) Flexible, MSc Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning), PGCert Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning), PGDip Global Ageing & Policy (Distance Learning) Flexible, PGDip Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning) only) Manage time and resources in an individual research project.

Teaching and Learning Methods

Audio-recorded lectures (C1, C3, C4, C6), online practice exercises and quizzes (C1, C3, C4, C6), tutor-led discussion board triggers (C1, C3, C4, C6), student discussion boards (C1, C3, C4, C6), and supervised research (C5, C6).

Note: Skill C5 is not developed fully for PGCert or PGDip students.

Assessment Methods

Coursework (C1, C3, C4, C6) and dissertation (C3, C4, C5, C6).

Subject Specific Practical Skills

On successful completion of this programme you will be able to:

D1. (For MSc Global Ageing & Policy (Distance Learning) Flexible, MSc Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning) only) Appropriately apply research design and methodology to research questions within the study of ageing globally.

D2. (For MSc Global Ageing & Policy (Distance Learning) Flexible, MSc Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning) only) Undertake the collection, analysis and interpretation of data (qualitative and/or quantitative) to investigate key research issues within ageing.

D3. (For MSc Global Ageing & Policy (Distance Learning) Flexible, MSc Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning), PGCert Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning), PGDip Global Ageing & Policy (Distance Learning) Flexible, PGDip Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning) only) Access, synthesise and communicate information relevant to the study of ageing and the life course from a variety of resources.

Teaching and Learning Methods

Online practice exercises and quizzes (D1, D3), tutor-led discussion board triggers (D1, D3), student discussion boards (D1, D3), and supervised research (D1, D2, D3).

Assessment Methods

Coursework (D1, D2, D3) and dissertation (D1, D2, D3).
Programme Structure

Information about pre and co-requisites is included in individual module profiles.

Where optional modules have been specified, the following is an indicative list of available optional modules, which are subject to change each academic year. Please note in some instances modules have limited spaces available.

MSc Global Ageing and Policy (Distance Learning) Pathway

Part I
This programme aims to provide you with training in literature on the study of ageing, a choice of quantitative or qualitative research methods, and an applied understanding of policy and programme evaluation worldwide. The programme is taught using a wide range of online resources, such as audio-recording and web-casts of lectures available on Blackboard, PowerPoint lecture slides, electronic readings, embedded trigger questions, online practice exercises and quizzes, discussion boards and assessed assignments. This programme offers students the opportunity to specialise in the contexts of China and South-east Asia, and Sub-Saharan Africa.

You will take two compulsory modules each worth 20 CATS/ 10 ECTS points (Global Perspectives in Gerontology; Policy Evaluation for Ageing Societies), and four option modules (each worth 20 CATS/ 10 ECTS points), one of which should be in quantitative or qualitative methods (i.e. either GERO6014 or GERO6015). Taught sessions take place over 2 semesters in each of two years, with three modules taken in each year (one or two modules per Semester). The dissertation (worth 60 CATS/ 30 ECTS points, maximum 15,000 words excluding footnotes, references and appendices) is written up during the summer/ autumn period, and submitted in December.

Programme details

The structure of the programmes and the modules currently offered are set out below. Of the modules shown against each part of your programme, some are compulsory (i.e. enrolment is automatic) and others are options. Against each part, you are directed to which modules are compulsory and which are options. The optional modules listed constitute an indicative list. There will always be choice but the options might vary between parts. A list of optional modules will be available to you via the Student Record Self-Service system once you enrol at the University.

Progression Requirements

The programme follows the University's regulations for Progression, Determination and Classification of Results: Undergraduate and Integrated Masters Programmes and Progression, Determination and Classification of Results: Postgraduate Master's Programmes as set out in the University Calendar: http://www.calendar.soton.ac.uk/sectionIV/sectIV-index.html
Support for student learning

There are facilities and services to support your learning some of which are accessible to students across the University and some of which will be geared more particularly to students in your particular Faculty or discipline area.

The University provides:

• library resources, including e-books, on-line journals and databases, which are comprehensive and up-to-date; together with assistance from Library staff to enable you to make the best use of these resources
• high speed access to online electronic learning resources on the Internet from dedicated PC Workstations onsite and from your own devices; laptops, smartphones and tablet PCs via the Eduroam wireless network. There is a wide range of application software available from the Student Public Workstations.
• computer accounts which will connect you to a number of learning technologies for example, the Blackboard virtual learning environment (which facilitates online learning and access to specific learning resources)
• standard ICT tools such as Email, secure filestore and calendars.
• access to key information through the MySouthampton Student Mobile Portal which delivers timetables, Module information, Locations, Tutor details, Library account, bus timetables etc. while you are on the move.
• IT support through a comprehensive website, telephone and online ticketed support and a dedicated helpdesk in the Hartley Library.
• Enabling Services offering support services and resources via a triage model to access crisis management, mental health support and counselling. Support includes daily Drop In at Highfield campus at 13.00 – 15.00 (Monday, Wednesday and Friday out of term-time) or via on-line chat on weekdays from 14.00 – 16.00. Arrangements can also be made for meetings via Skype.
• assessment and support (including specialist IT support) facilities if you have a disability, long term health problem or Specific Learning Difficulty (e.g. dyslexia)
• the Student Services Centre (SSC) to assist you with a range of general enquiries including financial matters, accommodation, exams, graduation, student visas, ID cards
• Career and Employability services, advising on job search, applications, interviews, paid work, volunteering and internship opportunities and getting the most out of your extra-curricular activities alongside your degree programme when writing your CV.
• Other support that includes health services (GPs), chaplaincy (for all faiths) and 'out of hours' support for students in Halls and in the local community (18.00-08.00).
• A Centre for Language Study, providing assistance in the development of English language and study skills for non-native speakers.

The Students’ Union provides

• an academic student representation system, consisting of Course Representatives, Academic Presidents, Faculty Officers and the Vice-President Education; SUSU provides training and support for all these representatives, whose role is to represent students’ views to the University.
• opportunities for extracurricular activities and volunteering
• an Advice Centre offering free and confidential advice including support if you need to make an academic appeal
• Support for student peer-to-peer groups, such as Nightline.

Associated with your programme you will be able to access:

- Module co-ordinators’ (or module convenors’) support. Module co-ordinators will be available at designated times during the week to discuss issues related to the particular modules you are studying at the time. This will be in addition to class contact time.
- Personal Academic Tutor. As soon as you register on this programme, you will be allocated a personal academic tutor. S/he is a member of the academic team and will be available to discuss general academic issues related to the programme as well as offer advice and support on any personal issues which may affect your studies.
- Distance Learning students will also be able to access a Distance Learning Tutor who can assist with the induction process and can advise on any aspect of the Distance Learning programme.
- Module handbooks/outlines. These will be available at the start of each module (often in online format). The Handbook includes the aims and learning outcomes of the module, the methods of assessment, relevant background material to the module and a session-by-session breakdown of the module together with appropriate reading lists.
- Within the Faculty, administrative support is provided by your Student Office which deals with student records and related issues and with queries related to your specific degree programme.
All students (both face to face and Distance Learning) have access to a Dissertations Supervisor who provides advice and support during the independent research. Distance learning students will also be able to access specially prepared materials covering these areas on Blackboard.

Methods for evaluating the quality of teaching and learning

You will have the opportunity to have your say on the quality of the programme in the following ways:

- Completing student evaluation surveys for each module of the programme
- Input into quinquennial PG Cert/PG Dip/MSc programme and module reviews by emailing your comments and suggestions to the designated student representative of the cohort.
- Acting as a student representative of your cohort, collecting the views and suggestions of fellow students through email and passing them on to the coordinators of the Gerontology Staff–Student Liaison Committee, the Social Sciences Staff–Student Liaison Committee, and the MSc Gerontology Programme Board.

The ways in which the quality of your programme is checked, both inside and outside the University, are:

- Regular module and programme reports which are monitored by the Faculty
- Programme validation, normally every five years.
- External examiners, who produce an annual report
- A national Research Excellence Framework (our research activity contributes directly to the quality of your learning experience)
- Institutional Review by the Quality Assurance Agency

Further details on the University's quality assurance processes are given in the Quality handbook.

Career Opportunities

Our alumni are working in a wide range of sectors related to ageing and older people: for example the health and social care public and private sectors, the medical sector and in local and national government research analysis. In addition, many alumni from the MSc Global Ageing and Policy (DL) programme have continued their postgraduate studies by following the PhD Gerontology pathway.

External Examiner(s) for the programme

Name: Suzanne Moffatt - Newcastle University

Students must not contact External Examiner(s) directly, and external examiners have been advised to refer any such communications back to the University. Students should raise any general queries about the assessment and examination process for the programme with their Course Representative, for consideration through Staff: Student Liaison Committee in the first instance, and Student representatives on Staff: Student Liaison Committees will have the opportunity to consider external examiners' reports as part of the University's quality assurance process.

External examiners do not have a direct role in determining results for individual students, and students wishing to discuss their own performance in assessment should contact their Personal Academic Tutor in the first instance.

Please note: This specification provides a concise summary of the main features of the programme and the learning outcomes that a typical student might reasonably be expected to achieve and demonstrate if s/he takes full advantage of the learning opportunities that are provided. More detailed information can be found in the programme handbook.
Appendix 1:

Students are responsible for meeting the cost of essential textbooks, and of producing such essays, assignments, laboratory reports and dissertations as are required to fulfil the academic requirements for each programme of study. In addition to this, students registered for this programme also have to pay for:

Additional Costs

| Conference expenses         | Accommodation: Where students wish to attend a scientific conference during their studies, they are liable for any accommodation cost associated (as well as conference registration fees).
                              | Travel: Where students wish to attend a scientific conference during their studies, they are liable for any travel cost associated.          |
| Hardware                    | Participating in the Distance Learning programme requires the student to access to a PC/laptop. Students may also wish to purchase their own PC/laptop or tablet in order to access Blackboard. Headphones are sent to the Distance Learning students via post as part of their tuition fees at the beginning of their programme. |
| Stationery                  | You will be expected to provide your own day-to-day stationary items, e.g. pens, pencils, notebooks, etc. Any specialist stationery items will be specified under the Additional Costs tab of the relevant module profile. |
| Textbooks                   | Where a module specifies core texts these should generally be available electronically on the reserve list in the library. However due to demand, students may prefer to buy their own copies. These can be purchased from any source. Please note that the vast majority of readings in Gerontology are available electronically through e-journals, as digitised text in the Online Course Collection or as e-books. Students on the DL programme receive key textbooks as part of their tuition fees at the beginning of the programme via post.
                              | Some modules suggest reading texts as optional background reading. The library may hold copies of such texts, or alternatively you may wish to purchase your own copies. Although not essential reading, you may benefit from the additional reading materials for the module. |
| Anything else not covered   | Students who are in receipt of Commonwealth scholarships are invited to attend a 4-day Residential Course in Southampton, for which the travel, accommodation and basic subsistence costs are covered as part of their Scholarship. |
| elsewhere                   |                                                                                                                                 |
| Printing and Photocopying   | For all GERO modules, coursework (such as essays; projects; dissertations) is submitted on line. Distance Learning students are provided hard copies of the MSc Student Handbook, Module Outlines and other key learning materials (eg. Module Outlines) via the post at the beginning of their programme, as part of their tuition fees. |

In some cases you'll be able to choose modules (which may have different costs associated with that module) which will change the overall cost of a programme to you. Details of such costs will be listed in the Module Profile. Please also ensure you read the section on additional costs in the University’s Fees, Charges and Expenses Regulations in the University Calendar available at www.calendar.soton.ac.uk.
